

Journey of Bilaal Rajan

March 24, 2008

Journey of Bilaal Rajan, 11 year old author, keynote speaker, and childrens' activist

A lot of you have been asking me what I have been up to and how come you have not been able to see me. This video is the summary of the journey I have been on these past few years and is especially relevant in this Golden Jubilee year of His Highness The Aga Khan, the spiritual leader of the Ismaili Muslim community and my inspiration. I wanted this to be the year that my message got out as my goal is to inspire one million children in the next three years to find their true potential while making a positive difference in this world. This is what I feel my calling is. Please help me spread this message to the world.